Tony, our campaign treasurer instructed me to contact the PDC if a contribution of $1000 or more was received between September 12th and 18th. That did happen; we received a $1400 check from Inslee for Congress today. Our treasurer is currently out of town, but will file the requisite C3 upon her return on September 16th.

Incidentally, I wasn't sure who to email, but I remembered receiving your card during one of your trainings. Please let me know if I should direct this to someone else. Thank you.

Subject: SPECIAL REPORT IN-KIND CONTRIBUTION IN EXCESS $1,000

Hi Sally,
As it always happens, these things crop up on weekends. I am not sure if I am doing this correctly, so let me know if I have to revise anything. According to the printed PDC manual I have, I should be able to file a special electronic C3 report for this contribution in excess of $1,000 in the seven days prior to the primaries, but am unable to do so via Orca. Accordingly, I am advising you via email, as the printed manual offers this as an acceptable alternative.

Record at 12:35 pm

Here are the particulars:
Amount (in-kind contribution): $ 1,845.97

Received (and notified) on: 09/15/06

Donor: Senate Republican Campaign Committee
P. O. Box 11025
Olympia, Washington 98508

Received by: Michael Riley (Riley for Senate)
P. O. Box 697
Black Diamond, Washington 98010

I have considered the donor (which is the Senate Republican Caucus Com define variously as a "Caucus Political Committee" or "Legislative Caucu interpretation? I have also considered their in-kind contribution (for the ( expenditure"; is that appropriate? Please advise. If, by chance, we were to receive contributions from a national party committee, how would we consider that type of committee as to campaign contribution limits? All the material I have from the PDC refers to only state, county, and legislative districts.

Thanks much for your help!

Tony,
I am not sure whether I am required to file these reports since the contributions have already been reported on C3s. I tried to call last night (it was 5:03) and got the answering machine...I didn't know what form to use and called this morning. Please let me know if there is an issue with these being submitted late...
