Purpose of the proposal and its anticipated effects, including any changes in existing rules: Prior to 2010, candidates and political committees filed disclosure reports with the Public Disclosure Commission and locally with their counties' election administrators. Chapter 205, Laws of 2010 repealed the local filing requirement. Counties were required to keep the reports for six years and make them available in a manner set out in the Chapter 390-13 WAC. The six-year retention period expired in June 2016 and the Commission now repeals its rule that dictated recordkeeping requirements.

Reasons supporting proposal: This rule is based on a repealed statute.

Statutory authority for adoption: RCW 42.17A.110
