Reason(s) for Modification (as stated by filer)	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Christopher Jordan is requesting a partial reporting modification that would exempt him from disclosing his residential address on his Personal Financial Affairs Statement filed as a 2022 candidate and covering the previous twelve months, due to safety concerns.• In his application, Mr. Jordan stated that his request is being made on the basis that, for the past six years, he has served as an Assistant Attorney General representing Child Protective Services (CPS).• Mr. Jordan stated that when CPS removes a child from a parents' care because of a safety threat he is directly involved in court hearings regarding those matters and is identified as the agency's attorney.• Mr. Jordan provided a specific example of a matter where the father whose child was removed made threats to "kill everyone involved in his case." He went on to speak to a current case involving a father who has committed numerous violent crimes and whom a professional has assessed as being a psychopath needing treatment.
Other Issues	PDC staff have informed Mr. Jordan of the residential address alternatives set forth in WAC 390-24-200. Mr. Jordan has agreed to recuse himself if there is a conflict of interest between his duties as an elected official and his personal interests. Mr. Jordan's records would be exempt from public disclosure if the Commission finds in accordance with RCW 42.17A.120 and WAC 390-28-080 that disclosure of such information would present a personal risk to a reasonable person.
