I take effec	for this finding: The Public Disclosure Commission finds good cause that immediate amendment of the rule is of the general welfare and that observing the time requirements of permanent rulemaking is contrary to the public Jnder RCW 42.17A.110(1), any rule relating to campaign finance, political advertising, or related forms may not tafter June 30th through the day following the general election in that year. This rule change was proposed petition submitted to the Commission on March 18, 2025, and the state budget was not finalized until May 21,

The petition stated that rule change was important for the upcoming 2025 election cycle, as both major political parties have recently increased participation in the ballot initiative process. The 2024 election cycle included party involvement in several high profile ballot initiative campaigns, which is expected to continue in the upcoming election. Furthermore, the 2025 legislative session produced particular issues, including the extraordinary budget situation, that are anticipated to generate multiple ballot propositions in which the parties will be participating. The parties have indicated that they use sample ballots to inform the public on the positions each party takes in elections. Under the current rules, the parties are limited in producing sample ballots that include the positions taken on ballot propositions, which can effectively prevent the parties from disseminating information to help inform the public on the election. Therefore, emergency rulemaking is necessary to implement the purpose of the Fair Campaign Practices Act and to help to fully inform the public concerning the positions of political parties on ballot propositions during the 2025 election cycle.

2025. The timing of the petition, the legislative session, and the budget approval did not permit enough time for the Commission to consider and complete the rulemaking process before the statutory June 30th deadline.

The Commission has conducted extensive outreach to engage the public in formulating this rule for adoption. The petition was presented at the Commission's public meeting on April 24, 2025. PDC staff published the draft rule on its website, sent notice to all stakeholders, and solicited comments from each major political party as well as other targeted groups. The issue again was presented at the Commission's public meetings on May 22nd, and on June 26th.
