JURISDICTION

The Public Disclosure Commission has jurisdiction over this proceeding pursuant to RCW 42.17A, the Public Disclosure Act; RCW 34.05, the Administrative Procedure Act; and WAC 390.

FACTS

1. In the March 10, 2009 special election, Spokane School District 81 (Spokane Schools) held a maintenance and operations replacement levy election and a bond election. The levy and bond propositions were assigned Proposition No. 1 and Proposition No 2., respectively. Proposition 1 and Proposition 2 were approved by more than 60% of voters participating in the election.
2. Respondent Sharon Condrey held the position of Office Manager for Lewis & Clark High School in the month prior to the March 10, 2009 special election.

3. At 10:40 am on Wednesday, February 11, 2009, using her Spokane Schools email address and computer, Ms. Condrey reported that she had spoken with Dave Hughes of the school's booster club, and that the club would be making a monetary contribution to the political committee supporting the levy.
4. Ms. Condrey states that she sent her email to Mr. Jordan in response to his request that she research the matter and report to him. She states that it was her standard operating procedure to communicate with Mr. Jordan by district email or phone while he was away from the office, as was the case on the morning of February 11, 2009.
5. Ms. Condrey states that she was unaware that RCW 42.17.130 prohibits the use of public facilities to promote a ballot proposition, including through the coordination of political committee fundraising.
6. Respondent Sharon Condrey has cooperated with Commission staff during this investigation, and has stated that it was not her intent to inappropriately use public facilities.
7. Ms. Condrey has no prior enforcement history before the Public Disclosure Commission.

STATUTORY AND RULE AUTHORITY

8. RCW 42.17.130 (effective January 1, 2012, codified as RCW 42.17A.555) states: No elective official nor any employee of his [or her] office nor any person appointed to or employed by any public office or agency may use or authorize the use of any of the facilities of a public office or agency, directly or indirectly, for the purpose of assisting a campaign for election of any person to any office or for the promotion of or opposition to any ballot proposition. Facilities of a public office or agency include, but are not limited to, use of stationery, postage, machines, and equipment, use of employees of the office or agency during working hours, vehicles, office space, publications of the office or agency, and clientele lists of persons served by the office or agency. However, this does not apply to the following activities:
 - (1) Action taken at an open public meeting by members of an elected legislative body or by an elected board, council, or commission of a special purpose district including, but not limited to, fire districts, public hospital districts, library districts, park districts, port districts, public utility districts, school districts, sewer districts, and water districts, to express a collective decision, or to actually vote upon a motion, proposal, resolution, order, or ordinance, or to support or oppose a ballot proposition so long as (a) any required notice of the meeting includes the title and number of the ballot proposition, and (b) members of the legislative body, members of the board, council, or commission of the special purpose district, or members of the public are afforded an approximately equal opportunity for the expression of an opposing view;

(2) A statement by an elected official in support of or in opposition to any ballot proposition at an open press conference or in response to a specific inquiry;

(3) Activities which are part of the normal and regular conduct of the office or agency.

9. WAC 390-03-273 states: Normal and regular conduct of a public office or agency, as that term is used in the proviso to RCW 42.17.130, means conduct which is (1) lawful, i.e., specifically authorized, either expressly or by necessary implication, in an appropriate enactment, and (2) usual, i.e., not effected or authorized in or by some extraordinary means or manner. No local office or agency may authorize a use of public facilities for the purpose of assisting a candidate's campaign or promoting or opposing a ballot proposition, in the absence of a constitutional, charter, or statutory provision separately authorizing such use.

10. RCW 42.17A.755(5) provides that the commission may waive a fine for a first-time violation.

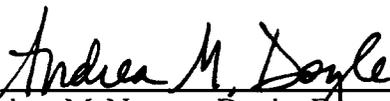

VIOLATION

Based on the Stipulation of Facts set forth above, Respondent Sharon Condrey stipulates to a violation of RCW 42.17.130 for her single use of the district email system as described herein.

PENALTY

Based upon the above Stipulated Facts and Violation, the parties agree that no monetary penalty should be imposed for the Respondent and that the Commission should waive any monetary penalty as allowed by RCW 42.17A.755(5).
