To whom it may concern,

It has come to my attention that a registered ongoing PAC, Citizens Alliance for Property Rights, and its officers – Glen Morgan, Cindy Alia, Laurel McFarland, Chuck Wennerlind, Cynthia Zapotocky and Darlene Hamilton, have failed to timely file C-3 and C-4 reports in 2016 and 2017. For a 14 month period, they appear to have filed no reports at all – obscuring over $10,000 in payments to a company that was no longer in business. A company owned by the PAC's previous treasurer.

Below is a list of the 60 reports filed by the PAC for 2016, all but a few filed late. Below that is the 59 reports filed in 2017, of which 32 were filed late. That's 92 out of 119 reports, or 77%. So far as we could see, the ONLY report filed between 3/24/16 and 5/14/17 is an updated C1pc on 2/23/17.

In addition to being filed late, the committee made $14,500 in payments over 10 months in 2016 to a firm called 'Lobbying Services'. According to the Washington Secretary of State, Lobbying Services LLC was created and obtained a business license on 12/26/14. That license expired 12/31/15, was not renewed, and the company was administratively dissolved 90 days later.

Every month from January to October of 2016, the PAC made payments to this non-existent LLC, payments totaling $14,500. All were simply labeled 'Lobbying'. In November, payments in the same amount for lobbying began being made to 'Cindy Alia.' I thought perhaps the PAC just hadn't known the company they were paying wasn't licensed to do business in Washington. Not so, it seems. The single governing person of Lobbying Services, LLC, according to the Secretary of State, is also named 'Cindy Alia.' And the treasurer of the PAC during that time, from 2012-2017, was also named 'Cindy Alia.'

Sadly, it appears that the PAC continued to pay invoices to Lobbying Services, LLC, enriching the PAC treasurer, even when it knew that company was no longer in business, and couldn't earn revenue. Lobbying Services received $18,500 from the PAC in 2015, when licensed, and another $14,500 over 10 payments in 2016 while not licensed.

As you can note on the below list, or on the PDC website, the PAC continued to operate, receive contributions and make expenditures from 3/25/16 until 5/14/17 – without ever filing a single report to the PDC. This is a committee where more than 80% ($23,808.39) of total expenditures were made directly to committee members or companies they owned. Disclosure and transparency are essential.

If you have any questions, or need additional information, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Joe Hyer
