Subject: Complaint regarding Roslyne Reed, PDC Case 34528

Dear Glen Morgan:

The Public Disclosure Commission (PDC) has completed its review of the complaint you filed on April 11, 2018. Your complaint alleged that Roslyne Reed, a 2016 candidate for Mason County Commissioner, may have violated RCW 42.17A.235, .265, .205, .320, and .255 by failing to timely and accurately disclose contributions, expenditures, books of account, committee registration, and sponsor ID.

PDC staff reviewed the allegations listed in the complaint you filed, the statutes, rules and reporting requirements, the Campaign Registrations (C-1 reports), Monetary Contributions reports (C-3 reports), and Summary Full Campaign Contribution and Expenditure reports (C-4 reports). As a result of staff's initial review, we found the following:

- Roslyne Reed is an incumbent School Director for the Hood Canal School District, a district that has less than 5,000 registered voters. Ms. Reed has been an unsuccessful candidate for Mason County Commissioner in 2008 and 2012.
- No evidence was provided to substantiate any allegations outside of late filings of C-3 and C-4 reports in violations of RCW 42.17A.235.
- Staff's review found that half of the alleged late filed C-3 and C-4 reports were for amended filings for which the initial C-3 and C-4 reports were filed timely. The remaining late filed C-3 and C-4 reports disclosed very minimal activity involving small dollar amount(s).
- Ms. Reed did file a small number of late C-3 and C-4 reports as alleged, such as the June 2016 C-4 report disclosing an $807 in-kind contribution for the candidate filing fee, and the 7-Day Pre-Primary Election C-4 report disclosing newspaper advertisements placed in the Kitsap Sun.

Based on these findings, staff has determined that in this instance, failure to timely file a small number of C-3 and C-4 reports disclosing minor contribution and expenditure activities, does not amount to an actual material violation warranting further investigation.

Pursuant to WAC 390-37-060(1)(b), Ms. Reed will receive a formal written warning concerning failure to timely file C-3 and C-4 reports. The formal written warning will convey staff's expectation that Ms. Roslynne Reed files timely and complete C-3 and C-4 reports in future years in accordance with PDC laws and rules. The Commission will consider the formal written warning in deciding on further Commission action if there are future violations of PDC laws and rules.

The PDC has closed this matter, and will not be conducting a more formal investigation into your complaint or pursuing further enforcement action in this case.

Based on this information, the PDC has dismissed your complaint in accordance with RCW 42.17A.755(1).

If you have questions, you may contact me at (360) 586-2869, toll-free at 1-877-601-2828, or by e-mail at erick.agina@pdc.wa.gov.
