

Jacob,

The property in the picture is a County Facility located at 230 N. 1st, Yakima, WA, owned by the County to include the fence. All the white vehicles within the picture are County owned (see Truck with logo). Posting at this location by an elected official or a County employee (such as myself) is a violation of RCW 42.17A.555.

In other words, if I can not legally post there as a County employee, than the County current elected official seeking re-election should also not be allowed.

Hope that helps.

Regards,

Eric Geary
