

File a Formal Complaint - James Allsup

James Allsup reported 5 days ago (Thu, 26 May at 4:43 PM) via Portal Meta

Hello,

My name is James Allsup, and when I was looking into candidates in the 9th district legislative race, I found Mary Dye's website (which you can find a link to here ). On the website there is a "donate" dialog, which processes through PayPal. The link to the donation button is here.

Nowhere on the donation page does it ask for employer or occupational information which, to the best of my knowledge, is required in Washington state for donations over $100. I experimented with it, and entered in a value of $101 as my "donation", and there was nothing on the site that prompted me to disclose my employer or occupational information.

In case the above links don't work her site name is www.friendsofmarydye.com.

If you could get back to me regarding this, I would really appreciate it!

Thanks,

James Allsup
