They also receive royalties from a gravel mine.</li> <li>• Mr. Reid stated that disclosing the company’s customer list would adversely affect the competitive position of the company by informing their competitors of who they sell their timber to and would also inform them of the percent and quantity of each grade of wood the company is growing.</li> <li>• Mr. Reid stated that disclosing the parcels of real estate held by the company would be too lengthy and cumbersome to compile given the limited staff resources. He stated that the company owns approximately 5,800 acres in 5 counties in Washington. He said he would be agreeable to disclosing the total number of acres held in each county in Washington. He stated that Alpine does not own land within the boundaries of the Port of Waterman.</li> <li>• Mr. Reid stated that Alpine’s business is not related in any way to the Port of Waterman.</li> </ul>
